

Conference Reviews 2001 – Newport Beach, California

Overall, delegates rated their “conference experience” a 4.85 out of 5, and “information they can use on the job immediately” a 4.89!

“It’s a very positive experience just by the nature of the conference. People who love what they do in their respective jobs are here to find ways of doing things even better. We love mingling with happy, upbeat, assertive people who feel privileged to be here. You benefit so much by the variety of topics, the video’s the talks on humor, etc. Great 3 1/2 days.”

Alice P. Johnson
Hoag Memorial Hospital

“This has been one of the most memorable experiences in my entire career. I needed this “Booster” shot at a critical time in my nursing life. I have high hopes again!”

Terri Bates
Mark Twain St. Joseph’s
Hospital

“Encourage all levels of hospital team to be present! Front line, SEAs, Administrators, Managers, Supervisors, etc.”

Jody Spector
St. Vincent
Medical Center

“Enthusiastic, energized, inspiring and outstanding.”

Gigi Tharmond
Kaiser Permanente

“Real life-examples are provided to make the connection and inspire enthusiasm as we deliver this human movement to improve the lives of others.”

Lisa ford
Eisenhower Medical Center

“The discussion is to real people, about real people and situations, it is presented in a sincere manner.”

Kathy Betha
Rancho Los Amigos

“Motivating and uplifting lessons applicable to my life and career.”

Sharon Patalon
